Dear Sir,

Regarding Revocation of Power of Attorney,
May 17th, 2008 (Au)

Please note, in Brooks Kushman's letter to the Patent Office April 2nd, 2008 and to Heslin Pty Ltd March 24th, 2008 the practitioner's reason for withdrawal from employment should have been given as section 37 CFR 10.40(b) 4, i.e. the practitioner is discharged by the client. Mandatory withdrawal. There was never an issue in regard to payment of fees, as in section 37 CFR 10.40(c) 1(vi) of the above letter, which requires permissive withdrawal.

Details of a money transfer March 20th, 2008 to Brooks Kushman finalising their last bill and copy of a letter from Brooks Kushman showing reason for discharge are included in this communication.

The above sections of code were only examined last week after discovering the present direction of correspondence as shown on public PAIR.

Yours sincerely,

R.H.

Dear Mr. Hesline:

Pursuant to your email to my assistant on March 19, 2008 and a letter to me on March 20, 2008, we will not proceed with preparing the final response to the outstanding office action which is due on April 18, 2008. As you stated, you will be prosecuting the above-pending application on your own.

Accordingly, we will close our file and file the attached Withdrawal as Counsel in this case. Should you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact us.

Very truly yours,

BROOKS KUSHMAN P.C.
